Attention is called to the change of advertisement of Sternberger & Phillips, which appears elsewhere in this issue. This firm has recently been established here. It is composed of young men full of energy and ambition, and is bound to succeed, since nothing but best material and first-class workmen are employed. The firm is now offering to paint your house free of charge, using the best materials, and tells you in the advertisement how it is done.

Captain J. S. Neal and J. K. Christian of McIntosh were among the visitors to this city yesterday. They state that the truckers of that section are enjoying fine success, and their products are bringing good prices. Lettuce is the principal movement, and that product is bringing from $4 to $4.50 per crate. W. E. McCarty, one of the truckers of that section, has two and one-half acres of lettuce which has been set since the freeze. This acreage will bear about 2,000 crates, the majority of which has been shipped, and has netted an average of $4.

Rev. George Sale of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Atlanta Baptist College for Colored Youths, is in the city, having been attracted here by the State Baptist Convention, which is being held in Mt. Moriah church. Rev. Sale states that the male college, which was established in 1867, has at present an enrollment of 210, while the female college, entirely separate and established in 1891, has 600 of the colored girls of the South enrolled. The corps of teachers is the best that could be found in the country, with the result that a great deal of good work is being accomplished. These colleges have turned out some of the brightest negro men and women in the United States.

Jesse E. Burtz, compiler of the Gainesville Directory, is progressing nicely in the work, and hopes to have the book before the public by May 10. The work of compiling a directory means a great deal of careful work, and this work is slow in the extreme. It is a trying task, but the compiler hopes to come through with but a few scratches, notwithstanding its many disadvantages (and uncivilized answers in some instances), and when the Gainesville Directory is published some of those who felt inclined to refuse information and the compiler was compelled to rely upon some other source, some may feel sorry that they did not spend "just a minute" in answering the half dozen questions asked. No person but the person refusing the information who are misrepresented in this work will be to blame. The compiler has started this work with a view of giving the city of Gainesville a first-class and accurate directory. It is done without cost to the residents, and it is at least the duty of those of whom he asks information to furnish the same unhesitatingly.

Believed Alabaman Murdered.

Birmingham, Ala., April 7.—A special to the News from Tuscaloosa, Ala., says that A. J. Lindgren, a well known citizen, who has disappeared, is believed to have been robbed and murdered last night near the Warrior river bridge, and his body thrown into the river. His horse and buggy were found near the bridge this morning. Near by was Lindgren's empty pocketbook and coat with four bullet holes in the latter. Evidence of a struggle were to be seen and blood stains leading to the bridge. The police are dragging the river with the hopes of finding the body.

Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at all druggists.
